

THE HARTFORD REPUBLICAN.

Fine Job Work a Specialty.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE PARTY IN THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Subscription $1 a year.

VOL. XV.

HARTFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1902.

No. 4.

EDWARD VII.

NOW A CROWNED KING.

Enormous Crowds see the Coronation Procession in London.

Brilliant Assembly Gathers in Westminster Abbey to Witness the Ceremonies.

London, Aug. 9.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra were crowned in Westminster Abbey shortly after noon today. Though the ceremony was bereft of some of the elaboration and pageantry originally contemplated, it lacked little in the way of spectacular perfection.

The news of the crowning was announced by an official outside the Abbey. It was repeated by signal through London, and was received with cheers which spread to stands and crowds far up the streets, as the bells pealed joyfully.

The return journey, which was slow as was the scene of enthusiasm. Their Majesties arrived at Buckingham Palace at 2:55 p. m.

WEATHER THREATENING.

A brilliant sunrise promised perfect weather for coronation day, but long before the ceremonies commenced threatening clouds gathered, and the early arrivals on the route of the procession came provided against contingencies. The earlier crowds were in nowise as large as it had been generally anticipated they would be. Many enthusiasts with camp stools and ample supplies of provender had spent the night on the best of vantage that could be secured and were to the same positions at 6 o'clock this morning.

Most of the best positions along the route of the processions were thickly crowded by 8 o'clock, and the spectators were furnished with plenty of diversions by the marching and counter-marching of the troops, headed by their bands, and quickly passing state coaches, private carriages and automobiles.

CENTERS OF INTEREST.

Buckingham Palace naturally was one of the principal centers of interest, as it was the starting point of the great pageant. Crowds assembled there in immense numbers, and the first hearty cheer of the day went up when the news was circulated that King Edward was in the best of health and spirits and well equipped to undergo the fatigues of the day.

DIDN'T LOOK WELL.

The King looked pale and rather drawn, and was by no means as brown and robust as previous reports had led one to expect, and while punctiliously bowing from side to side, he did so with a gravity very unusual to him. He seemed to sit rather far back in the carriage, and moved his body very little. His crimson cravat and cap, simply a band of ermine with a crimson velvet top, doubtless gave him the unusual appearance. The Queen, beside him, was radiant. She never looked better. The cheers which greeted the pair were loud and unmistakably genuine, and very different from the perfunctory applause which usually greets the appearance of members of the royal family.

CEREMONY BEGINS.

The ceremonies commenced with the reconsecration of the regalia. The procession clergy with the regalia then proceeded from the altar to the annex, all present standing up and the choir singing, "O, God, Our Help in Ages Past." Preceding the regalia came the boys of Westminster Abbey, followed by the chapel royal and the choir in royal uniforms.

The Duke of Connaught took his place beside the Prince of Wales in the Abbey as the procession entered, bowing as he passed the Prince.

QUEEN APPEARS FIRST.

The Archbishop of Canterbury took his seat in front of the coronation chair and the Earl of Halsbury, the Lord High Chancellor, seated himself by his side. Several minutes elapsed, however, before the King and Queen came in sight of those gathered about the throne. Suddenly "Vivat, Alexandra!" was shouted by the boys of Westminster, and the Queen, walking slowly to the left of the throne, gained her chair and knelt at a silver prie die, her magnificent train of cloth-of-gold being lifted out of her way by six scarlet-coated pages. Two or three minutes later came the hoarse cry from the Westminster boys of "Vivat Rex Edwardus," with blasts from trumpets. Yet there was another wait.

"What has become of the King?" was asked by people who were shut out from sight of the nave. The Queen waited patiently, the organ ceased and then resumed, there was another pause of trumpets and chorus of "Vivats," and King Edward appeared and walked to his chair in front of the throne, bowing to the Queen as he passed, and then knelt down in prayer.

After removing his somewhat unbecoming cap, his Majesty stood up, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, in a trembling voice, read the Recognition, beginning:

"Sir, I here present unto you King Edward, the Undoubted King of this Realm."

Then there was a hoarse shout and the kneeling of the choir and people, women and men, in the cry: "God Save King Edward."

Several times this was repeated, and the abbey rang with loud fanfares.

Again the King and Queen knelt and the Archbishop of Canterbury walked to the altar and commenced the communion. While the Gospel was being read, the King stood erect, supported on each side by the Bishops, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, in a trembling voice, read the Recognition, beginning:

"Sir, I here present unto you King Edward, the Undoubted King of this Realm."

Then there was a hoarse shout and the kneeling of the choir and people, women and men, in the cry: "God Save King Edward."

Several times this was repeated, and the abbey rang with loud fanfares.

Again the King and Queen knelt and the Archbishop of Canterbury walked to the altar and commenced the communion. While the Gospel was being read, the King stood erect, supported on each side by the Bishops, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, in a trembling voice, read the Recognition, beginning:

"Sir, I here present unto you King Edward, the Undoubted King of this Realm."

Then there was a hoarse shout and the kneeling of the choir and people, women and men, in the cry: "God Save King Edward."

Several times this was repeated, and the abbey rang with loud fanfares.

Again the King and Queen knelt and the Archbishop of Canterbury walked to the altar and commenced the communion. While the Gospel was being read, the King stood erect, supported on each side by the Bishops, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, in a trembling voice, read the Recognition, beginning:

"Sir, I here present unto you King Edward, the Undoubted King of this Realm."

Then there was a hoarse shout and the kneeling of the choir and people, women and men, in the cry: "God Save King Edward."

presented, the King advanced and knelt while he received the benediction. He then walked to the great throne, where he stood on the dais for the first time, surrounded by nobles. The Archbishop of Canterbury followed, the King being obliged to stand while awaiting the arrival of the Archbishop. Having placed the King into his new throne, the Archbishop knelt and paid homage, the aged prelate scarcely being able to rise until the King assisted him, and himself raised the Archbishop's hands from the steps of the throne. The Archbishop, who seemed to be in a faint, had to practically be carried to the altar. The incident created considerable excitement, and several prelates rushed forward to help the prelate.

The next person to pay homage to his Majesty was the Prince of Wales, who knelt until King Edward held out his hands, which he kissed after touching the crown as a sign of fealty. The Prince of Wales then started to return to his seat, when the King drew him back and put his arms around him and kissed him. After this the King once more gave the Prince his hand, this time to shake, and the hearty vigor of King Edward's grasp showed that his hand at any rate had not lost its strength.

CROWNING OF THE QUEEN.

The Queen then rose, and, accompanied by her entourage, proceeded to the altar steps, where, under a pall of cloth of gold, she was quickly crowned by the Archbishop of York, supported by the Bishops. She was then led to the throne beside that in which the King sat and her enthronization was accomplished. The Queen bowed to King Edward, and both walked to the altar and received the communion, after delivering their crowns to the Lord Great Chamberlain and another officer appointed to hold them.

ARCHBISHOP'S PRELIMINARY.

By a great effort the Archbishop of Canterbury was enabled to conclude the service and the King and Queen repaired to St. Edward's Chapel. Neither of their Majesties returned to their thrones after the communion, but remained at the altar. The service, which was completed with the singing of the Te Deum, was brought to a close without a hitch. The King exhibited no outward traces of fatigue.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwiler, Ohio, "an infant child, or our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions as in two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance. For sale by all druggists."

ADMINISTRATION OF THE OATH.

The administration of the oath followed. Standing before the King's chair the Archbishop remarked: "Sir, is Your Majesty willing to take the oath?" The King answered in firm, strong tones: "I am willing," etc., his replies being easily heard high up in the tribune near the roof. Then the inkstand was brought and the King signed the oath. He did not advance to the altar, but sat in the chair he had occupied since the service began.

After the Archbishop's anointing prayer a gold canopy was brought over to the King's chair and His Majesty divested himself of his outer robe and then walked to the ancient chair, while the choir sang Sedes Vacans. The spectators were just able to discern the Archbishop of Canterbury's motions.

After the prayer the King donned the colobium sindonis, then resumed his seat, and from a scarlet, silken roll, on which the prayers were printed in large type, and which was held by the Dean of Westminster, the Archbishop of Canterbury read the sword to the King, who did not go to the altar, the sword being taken to him by the Dean of Westminster while His Majesty remained standing. The armilla and the orb were then delivered to the King, according to the program. When the King held out his hand for the ring, the Archbishop of Canterbury had difficulty in finding it, but finally, with trembling hands, he placed it on the tip of His Majesty's finger, reading the prayer simultaneously, the King himself completed the process by putting on the ring as he withdrew his hand. Later the Archbishop had similar difficulty, owing to nearsightedness, in placing the crown on the King's head. In fact, the choir started, "God Save the King," while the Archbishop of Canterbury was still striving to place the crown on the King's head, and a great shout went up and the electric lights were turned on.

As the acclamations died away the clanging joy bells, the noise of the guns and the shouting of people outside penetrated into the abbey where the King still sat motionless, his dazzling crown on his head and his scepter held firmly in his hand.

NOBLES PAY HOMAGE.

After singing "Be Strong and Play the Man" and the Bible having been

COST DEFENSES WEAK.

Big Army Guns Are Not in Good Condition.

Troops in Need of Drill and Service Practice.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The disabling of three large-caliber guns at Fort Wright, Fisher's island, several days ago in a test by the gun-carriage board, has revealed to the navy officers a weakness in the defenses of that post that they are hopeful will be corrected during the coming maneuvers. The fact that there has been a woe of lack of practice with the big guns in many of the artillery posts is no longer concealed. Naval officers who have studied the situation are of the opinion that this will be more than ever demonstrated during the war game in September. It has already been shown by the experience of the gun-carriage board, and, although this condition may be no reflection upon any of the officers of the army, they do not deny that the situation is bad. The gunners aboard the naval vessels are nearly all experienced men and are familiar with the details of the operations of their guns. Electricity is not in its experimental stage on board the ships, whereas, in the forts within the war radius between Fort Adams and Fort Terry the wire connections have hardly been completed. The men have had little or no experience in the handling of the guns and fully 60 per cent of the men belonging to the artillery organizations are little more than recruits. The majority of the gunners operating the big guns in Fort Wright during the firing by gun-carriage board had never fired a large caliber gun before, and some of them had never seen a modern coast-defense gun before their enlistment, several months ago. It is evident that the army experts will depend largely upon their elaborate searchlight arrangements to detect the approach of the naval enemy, and already search-light towers have been erected on several of the islands near New London.

The importance of the accident to the big guns in Fort Wright is fully recognized by the artillery, and every one is asking "What if it should occur during the attack of the navy?"

One officer said to day: "If a breech block stick during the gun carriage test, how do we know that one will not stick at some other time, and if the oil pipe burst in two guns in Fort Wright, the others may burst in the other forts during action? The trouble is that Congress has never recognized the importance of providing for practice with the large guns with full service charges. Submarine practice is all right so far as it goes, but it does not instruct the men in the complete operations of the guns and at the same time it does not give the gun itself that practice which it should have to develop weak points and enable the war department to remedy them."

In order that it may be known exactly what the guns will do, Gen. MacArthur has determined to have all the artillery companies fully drilled in the handling of the guns during firing with full service charges, and in this way it is expected that any weaknesses now existing will be discovered in time to remedy it before the maneuvers begin. Efforts will be made at the same time to observe the electrical apparatus of the batteries.

The handling of the big guns is an intricate and delicate work. The sighting is done by scientific methods, and not by the gunners. At the range finder's towers (in some places concealed in the woods) the range from the shore to the approaching ship is taken and communicated to the plotting committee, where the observation is corrected according to prepared tables. The gun is then trained to the right or left and elevated or depressed until it accords with the figures given by the officer. Communication is carried on by telephone or the use of the tautograph, an instrument which reproduces a message in writing.

Some of the electrical machinery in some of the forts is affected by the shock of the firing of the gun is shown by the fact that in Fort Wright the firing of the 10-inch gun completely put out of order the telephone working from the gun platform to the powder room. An accident of this kind during an engagement with the naval vessels would undoubtedly cause a serious delay, and may result in the vessels getting by the fort without sustaining any (theoretical) damage.

Pardonable Profanity.

The New York Press tells of a Democrat, an importer and, in theory, a free trader, who received a circular from a free trade organization urging upon him the favorableness of the present time for a vigorous free trade campaign, and asking him to write and let the organization know what amount it should put him down for as his subscription in aid of the promoting work.

The citizen in question is not only a Democrat and an importer and a theoretic low tariff man, but he is a staid, venerable, temperate gentleman and a steadfast pillar of the church. And so moved was he by the brilliant opportunity for a change that he took a pen and wrote across the circular after the question asking him how much he would give:

"Not a damned cent!"

Seldom has the profane adjective been used more fittingly. Every cent given in aid of the vicious propaganda whose sole aim in life is to banish prosperity and bring in ruin and chaos certainly should class "as a damned cent."—Economist.

All Held Over.

John Jones, Mike Bivins, John Weber, Geo. Weber, Bob Weber, and Bert and Drury Smethers, the gang of whitecappers, who are charged with having brutally whipped and otherwise maltreated old man William Dowdell near his home above Yelvington last Sunday night were brought before Judge McCall at Yelvington Saturday morning to have their examining trials as the Owenboro Inquirer. The defendants filed an affidavit and undertook to swear the court off the bench, giving as their reason, that he was prejudiced and would not give them a fair and impartial trial. Judge McCall did not think the reasons given sufficient and he refused to vacate the bench. The defendants then waived an examining trial and were held over to the circuit court which convenes on Monday August 25. The parties gave bond in the sum of $250 each and were released from custody.

Emmett Fullerton, the other white-capper, is still at large.

Kentucky Fair Dates.

HARTFORD, October, 1-4. Lexington, August 11-16. Lawrenceburg, August 10-22. Shepherdsville, August 19-22. Maysville, August 20-23. Shelbyville, August 26-29. London, August 27-30. Germantown, August 27-30. Bardonia, September 2-6. Elizabethtown, September 9-12. Bowling Green, September 10-13. Glasgow, September 10-13. Bowling Green, September 17-13. Louisville, September 22-27.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Miss Florence Allan

Big Army Guns Are Not in Good Condition.

Troops in Need of Drill and Service Practice.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The disabling of three large-caliber guns at Fort Wright, Fisher's island, several days ago in a test by the gun-carriage board, has revealed to the navy officers a weakness in the defenses of that post that they are hopeful will be corrected during the coming maneuvers. The fact that there has been a woe of lack of practice with the big guns in many of the artillery posts is no longer concealed. Naval officers who have studied the situation are of the opinion that this will be more than ever demonstrated during the war game in September. It has already been shown by the experience of the gun-carriage board, and, although this condition may be no reflection upon any of the officers of the army, they do not deny that the situation is bad. The gunners aboard the naval vessels are nearly all experienced men and are familiar with the details of the operations of their guns. Electricity is not in its experimental stage on board the ships, whereas, in the forts within the war radius between Fort Adams and Fort Terry the wire connections have hardly been completed. The men have had little or no experience in the handling of the guns and fully 60 per cent of the men belonging to the artillery organizations are little more than recruits. The majority of the gunners operating the big guns in Fort Wright during the firing by gun-carriage board had never fired a large caliber gun before, and some of them had never seen a modern coast-defense gun before their enlistment, several months ago. It is evident that the army experts will depend largely upon their elaborate searchlight arrangements to detect the approach of the naval enemy, and already search-light towers have been erected on several of the islands near New London.

The importance of the accident to the big guns in Fort Wright is fully recognized by the artillery, and every one is asking "What if it should occur during the attack of the navy?"

One officer said to day: "If a breech block stick during the gun carriage test, how do we know that one will not stick at some other time, and if the oil pipe burst in two guns in Fort Wright, the others may burst in the other forts during action? The trouble is that Congress has never recognized the importance of providing for practice with the large guns with full service charges. Submarine practice is all right so far as it goes, but it does not instruct the men in the complete operations of the guns and at the same time it does not give the gun itself that practice which it should have to develop weak points and enable the war department to remedy them."

In order that it may be known exactly what the guns will do, Gen. MacArthur has determined to have all the artillery companies fully drilled in the handling of the guns during firing with full service charges, and in this way it is expected that any weaknesses now existing will be discovered in time to remedy it before the maneuvers begin. Efforts will be made at the same time to observe the electrical apparatus of the batteries.

The handling of the big guns is an intricate and delicate work. The sighting is done by scientific methods, and not by the gunners. At the range finder's towers (in some places concealed in the woods) the range from the shore to the approaching ship is taken and communicated to the plotting committee, where the observation is corrected according to prepared tables. The gun is then trained to the right or left and elevated or depressed until it accords with the figures given by the officer. Communication is carried on by telephone or the use of the tautograph, an instrument which reproduces a message in writing.

Some of the electrical machinery in some of the forts is affected by the shock of the firing of the gun is shown by the fact that in Fort Wright the firing of the 10-inch gun completely put out of order the telephone working from the gun platform to the powder room. An accident of this kind during an engagement with the naval vessels would undoubtedly cause a serious delay, and may result in the vessels getting by the fort without sustaining any (theoretical) damage.

Pardonable Profanity.

The New York Press tells of a Democrat, an importer and, in theory, a free trader, who received a circular from a free trade organization urging upon him the favorableness of the present time for a vigorous free trade campaign, and asking him to write and let the organization know what amount it should put him down for as his subscription in aid of the promoting work.

The citizen in question is not only a Democrat and an importer and a theoretic low tariff man, but he is a staid, venerable, temperate gentleman and a steadfast pillar of the church. And so moved was he by the brilliant opportunity for a change that he took a pen and wrote across the circular after the question asking him how much he would give:

"Not a damned cent!"

Seldom has the profane adjective been used more fittingly. Every cent given in aid of the vicious propaganda whose sole aim in life is to banish prosperity and bring in ruin and chaos certainly should class "as a damned cent."—Economist.

All Held Over.

John Jones, Mike Bivins, John Weber, Geo. Weber, Bob Weber, and Bert and Drury Smethers, the gang of whitecappers, who are charged with having brutally whipped and otherwise maltreated old man William Dowdell near his home above Yelvington last Sunday night were brought before Judge McCall at Yelvington Saturday morning to have their examining trials as the Owenboro Inquirer. The defendants filed an affidavit and undertook to swear the court off the bench, giving as their reason, that he was prejudiced and would not give them a fair and impartial trial. Judge McCall did not think the reasons given sufficient and he refused to vacate the bench. The defendants then waived an examining trial and were held over to the circuit court which convenes on Monday August 25. The parties gave bond in the sum of $250 each and were released from custody.

Emmett Fullerton, the other white-capper, is still at large.

Kentucky Fair Dates.

HARTFORD, October, 1-4. Lexington, August 11-16. Lawrenceburg, August 10-22. Shepherdsville, August 19-22. Maysville, August 20-23. Shelbyville, August 26-29. London, August 27-30. Germantown, August 27-30. Bardonia, September 2-6. Elizabethtown, September 9-12. Bowling Green, September 10-13. Glasgow, September 10-13. Bowling Green, September 17-13. Louisville, September 22-27.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Little

Ready for the Issue.

The Republican party will be only too willing to take up this alleged tariff issue. The American people have not yet forgotten their experience with tariff reform under Democratic rule. The disastrous condition of affairs that followed Democratic tariff reform in contrast with the unprecedented prosperity that has followed the passage of the Dingley tariff law presents an issue that does not require argument. The facts speak for themselves.

Some changes might be made in the tariff law with more or less advantage. But when they are made they will be made by the Republican party. There will be no attempt to make any great changes in the tariff while this country is as prosperous as it is now the case, and as has been the case ever since the Dingley tariff law was passed. There has been no such prosperity in any other nation on earth during this time, and the American people are not fools enough to repeat the mistake made in 1892, when the Democratic party was brought in to power to revise the tariff. It turned out properly into adversity and happiness into sorrow and distress. That experience was enough.—Philadelphia Press.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased by the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturer a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CASTORIA.

More Goods for Same Money, Same Goods for Less Money

Than any other house in Ohio county, is what FAIR & CO., are offering during August. Just call around and see if we are not doing exactly as we advertise. We can show you a host of articles that we cannot put in this space, at prices surprisingly cheap to you.

For Instance:

Ladies' Taped-neck Vest.....50c
Good quality Black Hose.....50c
Extra grade Ribbed Hose.....10c
Ladies' Belts.....10c
Nice quality Ladies' Handkerchiefs.....10c
R. & G. Summer Corsets.....50c
Ladies' Girdle Corsets.....50c
Remnant stock of Lawns, worth 10c to 15c, at.....8c
Ladies' Oxford Ties, regular $1.35 quality.....$1.00
Nice 5c Fans.....24c
Extra grade black Parasols.....50c
25c grade Embroideries, to close at.....15c

Fall Dress Goods.

We have received our advance shipment of Black Woolen Dress Goods and Fancy Woolen Waistings, also our complete line of Fancy Onting Flannels, which are now ready for your inspection. Would it not be wise to buy early and get the full benefit of your fall wear? Prices are as low now and styles are the same as they will be later on.

Woolen Dress Goods.....25c to $1.25 y'd
Fancy Flannel Waistings.....25c to 75c
Choice selection of Outfittings.....10c

McCall Patterns can be had at our pattern counter. Price 10c and 15c—none higher. Also the September Fashion Sheet—free. Call and get one. Keep yourself posted on the latest fall styles.

Bring us your Produce. All kinds taken in exchange for Merchandise.

THE PLACE IS:

For sale by J. H. Williams, Druggist, Hartford, Ky.

Hartford Republican.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 15.

City Restaurant.

Fried Fish during Court at City Restaurant.

Try the Ice Cream at City Restaurant. Fine.

Ham, Cheese, Sausage, etc., at Carson Bros'.

Cheese, Sausage, Dried Beef, etc. at City Restaurant.

Soda Water, Lemonade, Phosphates at City Restaurant.

For the best and freshest Groceries in town, see Carson Bros.

A white teachers' examination will be held here to-day and to-morrow.

While attending court, call on Carson Bros. for anything in the Grocery line.

If you want brand new goods call and see C. L. Arment, successor to Cox & Arment.

Rev. Lawhorn is conducting an interesting protracted meeting at Salem church, near Rosine.

Aunt Susan Woodward, of Shinkle Chapel, is taking the X-ray treatment for cancer of the breast.

Mr. Chester Stevens, of Hartford, played with the Bender boys in the ball game here Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Landrum, of Rosine, is very sick of lung trouble, and will not, perhaps, live but a short time.

Mr. Lavega Clements, County Attorney of Daviess county, is in town looking after the interests of Mr. Birkhead. Mr. Birkhead and Mr. Clements are law partners.

Go to the City Restaurant.

Tweddell makes good meal. Try him.

See Carson Bros. new line of fine English Chinaware.

City Restaurant is the place to get your meals during Court.

Call and see C. L. Arment's new stock of goods, it is a O. K.

Everything good to eat at City Restaurant, during Circuit Court.

Highest market price paid for wheat at J. W. Ford's Water Mill.

Rev. G. J. Dean will preach at 4 p. m.

Big C. L. Woodward has sold his farm near Centertown and will likely locate here.

Fish, Steak, Chicken, Ham, Eggs, Hot Coffee, Ice Tea, Ice Milk, etc., at City Restaurant during Circuit Court.

For cheap lumber of any dimensions, apply to F. L. Sandefur. Mill located four miles South of Beaver Dam.

The Nebraska Indians played the Bender boys at the ball grounds here Saturday, resulting in a score of 9 to 4 in favor of the former.

Teething

Then the baby is most likely nervous, and fretful, and doesn't gain in weight.

Scott's Emulsion is the best food and medicine for teething babies. They gain from the start.

Send for a free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 69-75 Third Street, New York.

See and find all druggists, and all first-class druggists.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again."
W. D. Quinn, Marselles, Ill.

One thing is certain, Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.
$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

We are indebted to Asessor Frank Lowe for the nicest watermelon we have seen this season. It was delicious.

Mr. Harlan Tichenor has sold his farm near Beda to Mr. J. Worth Wade and will likely move to California this fall.

The teachers who win our voting contest prizes will not have to apply for schools hereafter, the applications will come to them.

Mr. Frank Lowe has bought, of Col. C. M. Barnett, a new residence property on Griffin street, and will move here about the first of October.

S. T. Barnett & Co. have opened a meat market in the Riley Building where the best country hams, bacon and lard will be kept at fair prices.

Messrs. W. L. Shaver, C. B. Shaver and E. G. Stewart, of Beda, have bought property at Beaver Dam and will move to that town next week.

R. L. Tweddell is now ready to grind your corn. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mill located east-end from bridge, Hartford, Ky.

Mr. Nicholas Barrass, of Taylor Mines, returned home, Sunday, from Grayson Springs, where he had gone to spend a few of the hot August days.

In order to encourage the raising of good watermelons, we will give a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN for the best melons brought to this office before September 1st.

Leave your Laundry at Cleve Hieser's for the Richmond Steam Laundry. Best work brought to Hartford or no charge. RAGLAND & PATIN, Agents.

Mrs. Luke Collins suffered the fracture of a rib in a fall over a chair a few days ago. While crossing the room she stumbled over a chair and fell with the result mentioned.

Messrs. J. H. Williams, Dyer White and Carson & Co., have laid a concrete pavement in front of their business houses, and Messrs. W. S. Tinsley and Carson Bros. are preparing to do likewise.

Work was resumed yesterday morning on Col. C. M. Barnett's new brick business house on Centre street. When completed the ground floor and basement will be occupied by THE REPUBLICAN plant.

FOR SALE—One 80 acre farm, well watered and improved, one half hill and one-half bottom, two miles South-west of Magan, Ohio county, Ky., also stock and farming implements as same. LON RALPH, Magan, Ky.

Alfred Stewart, the singing school master, who was held up and robbed by two negroes at the Taylor Mines switch, near Beaver Dam, Sunday a week ago, has become insane as a result of the shock. Stewart was an extremely nervous man and the shock subsided his mind.

Fall Festival, Cincinnati, Ohio, September 15-27, 1902. On account of above occasion, round trip tickets will be sold at rate of one fare for round trip, $6.65, from Beaver Dam to Cincinnati and return. Tickets on sale September 14 and 15, limited to September 27, for return.

I wish to announce that I have completed my new store house and just received a brand new stock of goods and would be glad for all my old customers and friends as well as all new ones to call and see my stock of merchandise and get my prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Yours for trade, C. L. ARMENT, Dundee, Ky.

Mr. Steve Daule, a farmer living near Olston, lost his house, with its contents, by fire one morning last week. No insurance. Mr. Daniel kindled a fire in the cooking stove and went to the barn to feed his horses and while at the barn, saw the smoke distance from the house, saw the house in flames. Mrs. Daniel was asleep when her husband left the house and awoke only in time to escape with her life.

Candidates in Our Voting Contest.

FOR THE BUGGY.

R. H. Miller, James Duff, James Fitzhugh, W. R. Carson and James Barnes.

FOR THE WATCH.

Misses Artie Wilson, Dona Woodward, Daisy Godsey, Floy Murphy, Blanton Coleman, Mattie Pirtle and May Rogers.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mr. Darb Crawford, of Friedland, is in town.

Mr. R. B. Martin Cromwell was in town Monday.

Mr. W. R. Bean, Dundee, was in town Monday.

Mr. Ben D. Ringo, was in Owensboro Saturday.

Mr. Luther Rogers, Select, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Clarence Morrisos went to Owensboro Sunday.

Commonwealth's attorney J. E. Rowe is in town.

Mr. R. H. Eversly, Smidhouse was a caller Saturday.

Mr. R. B. Martin, Cromwell, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Carson Byers, Olston, is attending court here.

Capt. A. B. Stanley, Cool Springs, called on us Monday.

Mr. A. F. McDonald, of White Run was in town Tuesday.

Requiescent L. Woodward, Centertown was in town Tuesday.

Mr. H. C. Powers, of Narrows, called in to see us yesterday.

Mr. Sam Keown, Fordville, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. J. W. Bratcher, Beaver Dam, called at this office Saturday.

Mr. Nathaniel Moxley, of Trisler, gave us pleasant call Monday.

Mr. Asthazy Thatcher, of Morgan-town, was in town this week.

Mr. W. A. Carsons, Beda, called to see us while in town Tuesday.

Mr. H. A. Stom, of Paradise, called on us while in town yesterday.

Mrs. J. E. Davidson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Alford, near White Run.

Mr. Robt Hunter, Smallhouse, called to see us while in town Monday.

Mr. David Miller, Owensboro, is spending a few days with his parents here.

Little, Miss Gracie Forrester, is visiting friends in the country this week.

Mr. T. C. Beas, Dundee, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Monday.

Mr. S. J. T. Morrison, of Fordville, is visiting his brother Mr. Clarence Morrison.

Mrs. E. L. Myers, of Rander visited friends at Central City the first of the week.

Messrs Roy Candor and Houston Basham, of Narrows, were in town Tuesday.

Mr. S. O. Keown, and son, Master Gilmore, were in town the first of the week.

Mr. E. G. Burton, Rander, has gone to Stanton, Ill., where he will probably locate.

Judges L. P. Little and C. W. Massie, of Owensboro, were in town the first of the week.

Miss Mabel Duke left last Monday for Lexington, to visit the family of Mr. Willie Walker.

Miss Oma Westerfield, of Pleasant Ridge, is visiting her brother, Mr. F. M. Westerfield, this week.

Misses Zettie and Hattie Hocker, of Leitchfield, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jas. L. Rowe, at Rander.

Prof. I. S. Mason and wife, of Pleasant Ridge, have moved to Greenville, where they will open school September 15.

Messrs. John Medcalf, Ed. Byron, and George Barnes and John Barrass, of Beaver Dam, attended the Chautauqua at Owensboro Sunday.

Messrs. Andy Cummings, Frank Fleides, William Powers, W. R. Bean, Marion Martin, and Clarence Arment, Dundee, were in town Monday.

Mrs. Mary A. Duncan, Louisville, and Mrs. O. C. Roli, Greenville, who have been the guests of Mrs. F. L. Felix for several days, went to Greenville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake May and family, of Chicago, Mrs. Clay Wilhoyte, of Owensboro, and Mrs. Morris Barnett, of Hartford, were guests of the family of Mr. F. M. Westerfield Tuesday.

Mrs. G. L. Macey and Mrs. Belle Berryman, of Versailles, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Dr. A. F. Stanley. Mrs. Berryman has visited in Hartford before and her friends here welcome her return.

Called Meeting.

The Sons of Veterans will have a called meeting at the court house September 6, at 2 p. m. Every member is urged to be present.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers and directors of The First National Bank of Hartford, Ky., August 13, 1902.

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Allwise God, our esteemed President and beloved brother Director, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in his death the First National Bank has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful member of its directory and its capable and honorable President, who has so successfully directed the affairs of our Bank since its organization; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen, and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

RESOLVED, That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow, and who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That these evidences of respect and esteem be spread upon the records of the Bank, a copy presented to the family of the deceased, and that they be read at the funeral services of our co worker and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

G. B. LUKENS, Act. Pres.
J. C. RILEY, Cashier.

ALVIN ROWE,
J. P. STENHENS,
C. J. RHODES, } Directors.

THE RAILROAD.

Surveyors Going Over the Route and Will Complete the Work To-Morrow.

Mr. M. Armitage and son, civil engineers, began, at Beaver Dam Monday morning, a survey of the route for the railroad from that place to Hartford. The engineers have completed the survey to muddy flats, and are expected to reach Hartford to-morrow. Monday the engineers will begin to set grade stakes, and by September 1, they expect to have the route ready for the plows and scrapers. While the contracts for grading the road bed have not yet been let, there is no longer a reasonable doubt about the road being built.

Messrs. Armitage and son are practical railroad builders, and the building of the new line will be practically under their supervision.

If our country friends want to see this old town again before she sheds her rusty skin and comes out in a nice, new epidermis, they should come in at once.

Self Explanatory.

REPUBLICAN, Hartford, Ky.—Please send copy of paper containing account of Indian ball game to

GY W. GREEN,
Manager Nebraska Indians,
Sullivan, Ind.

August 10, 1902.

HARTFORD, KY., Aug. 12, 1902.

Mr. Gay W. Green, Sullivan, Ind.

Dear Sir:—I have your letter of 10th inst., requesting me to send you copy of my paper containing account of ball game here. I regret to have to say that on the account of the local managers here failing to supply my office force with complimentary tickets, (in my absence,) notwithstanding, we had given the game several dollars worth of free advertising, I do not feel called upon to mention the ball game here, except a brief news mention. Pardon me for suggesting that hereafter you should see that newspaper people, who have treated you liberally, have passes to your games. I return herewith the price of paper enclosed. However, I shall mail you copy of paper of date mentioned.

Very truly yours,
JOHN H. THOMAS, Editor.

DEATH AT DUNDEE

Of Mr. Chesterfield Cole, a Prominent and Respectable Citizen.

Mr. Chesterfield Cole, a prominent citizen and Mason, died at his residence, at Dundee, Thursday night, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Cole was first attacked with acute pain in his head, the cause of which his physicians were not entirely able to understand, and for several days his death was expected hourly. But he so far recovered that he was able to be out again, and his friends had reason to hope that his recovery would be complete, but about a week before his death he had another attack of the mysterious trouble and sank rapidly until his death.

Mr. Cole was about thirty-five years old, and leaves a wife and four children.

More business is being done at this time than usual. A large number of cases have been disposed of and many cases will yet be tried. The indications are that the fall three weeks will be occupied with trials.

The following results were had in cases named:

Thos. McDonald vs. I. C. R. R. Co., judgment for $50.00.

Bertha Duke vs. Robt. Nelson, &c., verdict for defendant.

Wm. Broughton vs. I. C. R. R. Co., verdict for $1,300 for plaintiff.

F. B. Sullivan vs. Helrick Lumber Co., verdict for plaintiff for $25.

Beaver Dam Deposit Bank vs. W. C. Smith, verdict for $100 for plaintiff.

Ed Cooper vs. I. C. R. R. Co., judgment for $30 for plaintiff.

B. D. Ringo vs. Helrick Lumber Co., continued at cost of defendant.

Thos. Burton vs. J. W. Martin, verdict for plaintiff.

Ernest Woodward vs. I. C. R. R. Co., agreed judgment for $2,000.

John Brown vs. Robt. Hoover, now on trial.

In the matter of the suit filed by N. Barrass, etc., vs. T. J. Smith, etc., to enjoin the Democratic Judicial Committee from holding a primary on November 4, a regular election day, to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, motion to dissolve the injunction was sustained, and judgment suspended for twenty days, in which time the plaintiffs will take the case before some member of the Court of Appeals and ask that the injunction be re-instated.

The following divorces have been granted at this term:

Rudy Duncan vs. Asa Darcen.

Perry Vinayad vs. Luby Vinayad.

Robert Decker vs. Margaret Decker.

Visiting attorneys—Messrs. Lavega Clements, Judge L. P. Little, and Judge C. W. Massie, Owensboro, S. P. Robey and B. E. Kelly, Fordville, Anthony Thatcher, Morgantown, Jno. Rone, Centertown, and J. M. Porter, Beaver Dam.

What are Humors?

They prevent 1 for world's faults causing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves? In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility. How are they expelled? By Hood's Sarsaparilla which also builds up the system that has suffered from them. It is the best medicine for all tumors.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

Results in the Death of One of Hartford's Best Citizens and Business Men.

Mr. T. Larkin Griffin died Tuesday noon from an injury received in a fall Friday night. Funeral services were conducted at his residence by Revs. G. J. Bean and J. C. Pettie at 10 o'clock Wednesday and the interment in Oakwood Cemetery followed at noon.

Friday night Mr. Griffin and Contractor Ike Foster were sitting in Mr. Griffin's drug store discussing plans for the rear extension to the drug store, when Mr. Griffin stepped to the rear door to point out some specific plans he had in view, and forgetting the removal, a few days before, of a storage room in the rear, walked out at the rear door and fell seven feet to the ground below, the fall breaking his right leg above the knee and fracturing his thigh. Later his physicians determined that he suffered also internal injuries to which his death was immediately attributable. Medical science was exhausted in the treatment of the unfortunate patient, but he grew steadily worse until Tuesday noon, when his great soul went west to eternity.

Mr. Griffin was born on a farm near Beaver Dam 54 years ago, and engaged in the drug business with his brother, Z. Wayne Griffin, now deceased, here, about thirty years ago, in which business he has since been engaged.

Mr. Griffin married Miss Mary Foreman, after whose death he married Miss Sallie Taylor, whose death left him again a widower, when he married Miss Maggie Craig, who survives him.

Larkin Griffin was, indeed, one of the best citizens Hartford ever had, and his death will be deeply mourned by our people. Mr. Griffin had, by his generous dealings with the public, amassed quite a nice little fortune and at the time of his death, was President of the First National Bank of this city.

Eternal peace to his dust.

DICK NICHOLS.

Of Barren County, Given His Liberty Last Saturday.

Dick Nichols, who has been in jail here for several weeks, charged with burning Taylor Stevens' barn near Centertown, was released from custody Saturday, upon proof that he was confined in the Danville, Ill., jail at the date of the burning.

Dick is a Barren county young man, who had the misfortune to love a young lady of his neighborhood, who jilted him about six months ago for an Ohio county man. Dick followed the newly wedded couple to Ohio county and got himself in jail by peeping through the window of his transient sweetheart's room.

Public sympathy finally effected his release from prison and he returned to his home in Barren county. A few weeks later Dick's old sweetheart and her husband went West to seek their fortune, and Dick, longing for a last farewell look at the woman he loved, went west also.

Dick was not sure of the whereabouts of the couple in question, and while prospecting in the city of Danville, Illinois, fell in with a couple of generous strangers who obligingly relieved him of his wad. The strangers were immediately apprehended, and Dick, lacking a permanent residence in Illinois, as well as sufficient bondsmen, was put in prison to insure his presence as a witness in punishing the robbers and lucidly upholding the dignity of the great State of Illinois.

Unfortunately for Dick, while he was languishing behind the bars of an Illinois jail, Mr. Taylor Stevens' barn was burned near Centertown, in this county, and as Dick had formerly done the window peeping act about Mr. Stevens' residence, he was very naturally charged with the crime and especially as some obliging would-be witness, claimed to have seen Dick near Mr. Stevens' premises in the afternoon before the barn was burned. As a result, a warrant was sworn out for Dick's arrest and Sheriff Keown went to Danville, and brought him back to Hartford where he was again lodged in jail for safe-keeping. But, by and by, Dick's innocence was proven and he was again given his liberty. He left at once for his home in Barren county, and, judging from the experience of his two former visits here, will sever visit Ohio county again.

Dick has been in jail twice in Ohio county and once in Illinois, but it is safe to say that he is as harmless a creature as ever yet set cold prison bread.

Our voting contest is growing in interest and the friends of some of the

CENTRAL Business College

Hartford, Ky.
Riley Building—Third Floor.

Everything new and attractive. Equipment and environment unexcelled. Instruction thorough and complete. Courses practical from beginning to completion. Aid in securing positions. No College education required to enter, as we give preparatory course.

COURSES.
BUSINESS COURSE.—Bookkeeping, (Saddle-Rowe Budget System, embracing Single and Double Entry, Commission, Manufacturing, Wholesaling, Banking, Etc.) Commercial Law, Business Arithmetic, Penmanship, English, Practical Spelling and Business Correspondence.
SHORTHAND COURSE.—Shorthand, (Graham System) Touch Typewriting, English, Practical Spelling, Penmanship and Business Correspondence.
PREPARATORY COURSE.—Business Arithmetic, Practical Spelling, English, Penmanship, Etc. This course is given for the benefit of those desiring to pursue either or both the other courses and who may not be prepared to do so at

